Time To Meet Mr. Black. The Brilliant New 10 Comedy.

Premieres Tuesday, May 7 At 8.30pm On 10 And WIN Networks.

Get ready for the hilarious new comedy, Mr. Black, when it premieres on 10 and WIN Networks on Tuesday, 7 May at 8.30pm.

Stephen Curry plays 48-year-old Mr. Black. A recently retired, old-school sports journalist, whose mortality is staring him in the face.

He has lived a full life, but has no intention of going gently into the night – especially when there’s so much to be angry about.

And now because of his failing health, he is forced to move in with his daughter Angela and her sensitive boyfriend Fin, to receive extra care.

It’s game on when Mr. Black thinks everything is wrong with his daughter’s Mr. Right, and he will stop at nothing to come between them. The ailing father strives to fulfil one last wish – to break up the relationship between his daughter and her boyfriend in this generational tug of war.

What unfolds is a hilarious and relentless psychological arm-wrestle between a proud GenXer and a bemused Millennial where the winner gets to share a house with Angela, and the loser moves out to never darken their doorstep again.

This hilarious eight-part series is created by multi award-winning writer, actor and producer Adam Zwar (Wilfred, Agony) with a stellar cast including Nadine Garner (The Doctor Blake Mysteries), Nick Russell (Winners & Losers), Sophie Wright (Kinky Boots) and Paul Denny (Lowdown).

Mr. Black is a CJZ production for Network 10, with principal production investment from Screen Australia in association with Film Victoria.
